What can you expect from VMATES

Site visits at times that suit you –
We are happy to do regular onsite meet ups during business hours.

Call your site supervisor at any point through the construction, and we'll organise to meet you onsite for a walk around and Q&A session

What can you expect from VMATES

- No false promises or marketing ploys – You know the ones. The promises of remarkable upgrades and extras that lure you in only for you to find out later that it's built into the price or not quite what you thought? There's none of that with us. Instead we build the home you want, with the inclusions you want for a fair and reasonable price
